Gita Khaerunisa Indahsari was born on December 3rd 1965 in Bogor as the eldest daughter of two siblings from Sjarifudin Baharsyah and Justika Ubuh. Her childhood was spent following her parents in the States when they were continuing their education at a higher level. Back in Bogor, she continued and finished her education from Regina Pacis High School and continued to Bogor Agricultural University in 1985 through the PMDK (Penelusuran Minat dan kemampuan) where she was accepted without a test.

After graduating in 1990, she continued to work as a business consultant in Jakarta then continued her Masters in Oklahoma State University, where she also was accepted to work as Marketing Research Assistant for the Graduate College. Her thesis was published in the Agribusiness Journal, John Wiley & Sons, Inc. in 1996 with the title "Impact of International Coffee Agreement Abandonment on Indonesian Coffee Prices".

After having her Masters in 1993, she continued to take several graduate college courses in North Carolina State University, Raleigh. Back in Jakarta, she is now a lecturer in Swiss German University, Binus International and Monash University.
